Situated on the 5th level of The Hedge complex, this apartment is characterised by its abundant natural light and spaciousness, featuring three generously sized bedrooms (including a master suite with ensuite) and well-designed living area and kitchen. A sliding glass door from the master bedroom and living area provides direct access to a balcony that offers stunning views of the ocean to the left and the hinterland to the right. Additionally, there is a functional study nook with a window for convenience. The property includes two dedicated parking spaces in the basement as well as a storage cage for additional items.

The prime location of these apartments ensures easy access to Kawana World shopping centre, a patrolled beach, various coffee shops, restaurants, cinema options and medical facilities making it unnecessary to use a car for daily conveniences.

The Hedge complex fosters a strong sense of community, offering a quiet, friendly, safe, accessible and secure environment. Residents can enjoy a range of amenities on Level One, including a heated magnesium pool, a gymnasium, a lending library for books and puzzles and a barbeque area with seating designed for enjoying meals while taking in the beautiful coastal atmosphere.
